

I Place My Soul

I hold my face in my two wings, to keep my soul from flying in anger,
I lift my feet with my two wings, to lead my soul in honor and freedom.

I cradle my heart in my two wings, to rock my soul through heartache & sorrow,
I place my voice in my two wings, to free my soul in laughter and lightness.

I rest my mind in my two wings, to save my soul from judging unfairly,
I tuck my spirit in my two wings, to soothe my soul hope and forgiveness.

I pour my dreams into my two wings, to guide my soul when spinning in anguish,
I place my soul in my two wings, to set it soaring in peace everlasting.
